

CODE OF CONDUCT

This hackathon is an event intended for learning and collaboration. We value the participation of each member of the developer community and want everyone involved to have an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Accordingly, participants are expected to show respect and courtesy to each other throughout the event. To make clear what is expected, participants, volunteers, mentors and judges in the hackathon are required to conform to the following Code of Conduct. Organizers will enforce this code throughout the event.

Be Respectful Be kind to others. Do not insult or put down other attendees. Behave professionally. Remember that harassment and racist, sexist, or exclusionary jokes are not appropriate for this event. Harassment includes offensive verbal comments related to gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, religion, sexual images in public spaces, deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, harassing photography or recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention.

Be Open We welcome attendees from all backgrounds. This event is about increasing the overall amount of learning, partnership, and engagement in the developer community.

Be Awesome Do your best and believe in yourself.

Special Note: You will be under CCTV surveillance at the venue at all times during the event. This is to ensure the safety of all the participants.

Participants violating these rules may be asked to leave the hackathon at the sole discretion of the organizers. Thank you for helping make this a welcoming, friendly place for all.
